Home-Sharing Ordinance

Last year, a few of my colleagues introduced a motion directing the Department of City Planning to prepare an ordinance governing short-term rentals in Los Angeles. Just last week, a draft ordinance was released. Visit these links to review the proposed ordinance and rules outlined by the City: Draft Ordinance, Home-Sharing Quick Guide and Public Hearing Notice.

We Love You, Renee

Renee Weitzer has spent over 30 years serving the people of Council District 4, most recently as my Chief Planning and Land Use Deputy. She served under Councilmember Tom LaBonge and for his predecessor, John Ferraro. After so many years of services, her grandchildren are demanding more of her time and they have been quite persuasive. Beginning next week, Renee will begin a new chapter that includes trips to museums and more time with friends and family. Renee's understanding of planning and land use matters is unmatched, along with her commitment and love for Los Angeles. She will always be available to us and remain a member of the Council District 4 family. I am proud to call Renee a friend and mentor.

Beautifying Western Avenue

My office, through the Great Streets Initiative, is partnering with Beautify Earth, an arts nonprofit, to paint murals along the Western Avenue corridor -- from Melrose Avenue to 3rd Street. Art transforms spaces and builds community for all to enjoy.

Concrete Street Repairs in Hancock Park

In the last few months, our team has worked with the Mayor's office on the City's proposed budget. Included in the proposal is $750,000 for work on concrete street repairs in Hancock Park. The City will seek private bids for the work to determine approximately how much these repairs will cost. For years, concrete streets have not been repaired due largely to a lack of funding. This move could set the stage for more extensive repairs throughout Hancock Park and other neighborhoods with unique street repair needs.
